

I am writing to voice my objection to Sinclair Broadcasting's planned broadcast, just prior to the presidential election, of "Stolen Honor" .

Its factual inaccuracies aside, "Stolen Honor" is, for all intents and purposes, a one-hour campaign advertisement for President Bush. Airing it, without airing shortly thereafter pro-Kerry content of a similar length, such as "going upriver", is a clear violation of the public trust.

Sinclair Broadcasting's actions amount to an enormous in-kind, corporate (IE: Illegal), political contribution to the Bush/Cheney campaign.

I respectfully call upon the FCC to act on this matter urgently.
